This research focuses on the design and implementation of a web-based business management system for Toko Aci. The objective of this study is to design and implement a web-based business management system that employs the Weighted Product method to enhance sales and marketing strategies. This method was selected due to its ability to prioritize with clear criterion weights, thus aiding in more effective decision-making. As a result, the system significantly improved operational efficiency as well as sales and marketing performance at Toko Aci. It can also serve as an effective solution for other stores aiming to refine their business strategies.
