REVIEW COMMENTS:

Changes which must be made before publication:

The abstract is too long relative to the length of the article. It should not exceed 100 words.

The author(s) need to explain in the abstract and introduction how the article is related to international markets.

There are many grammatical mistakes in the article (including the abstract). The author(s) should hire a professional copy editor to proof read the article.

Sections 3.1 and 3.2 can be combined into one section.

Figure 1 needs more explanation. What are X1, X2 and X3? How and why do they affect Job Satisfaction?

Suggestions which would improve the quality of the article but are not essential for publication:

I am pleased to inform you that your article has been accepted for publication in Int. J. of Trade and Global Markets.

You now need to upload the final revised version for this article and your author copyright agreement form(s) or your Open Access order form.

The reviewers' comments are added to the end of this email for your information. There may be some useful suggestions for improving your final version.

* INSTRUCTIONS *

Log in to the Inderscience Submissions system. There is a reminder facility there if you have forgotten your username or password.

Then click on the following link, and you will be taken to the correct section for uploading:

<https://indersciencesubmissions.com/track/index.php?action=submitdetails&intSubmissionId=17858>

1. Scroll down the page to the section called "Peer Review Progress". Click on "Edit metadata" to make any required corrections to the title, abstract or keywords. Please also review carefully for any spelling or grammatical errors.

Remember to click the "Submit" button to save your changes.

2. Returning to the "Peer Review Progress section", at the "Type of Article" drop-down list, select whether the article is a "Standard" article (the default) or an "Open Access" article.

If you are submitting an Open Access article, you will need to upload a completed OA order form.

(See more information on the Inderscience web site at http://www.inderscience.com/info/inauthors/author_oa.php)

If you are submitting an Open Access article, you do not need to submit a copyright agreement form.

4. Next you need to insert the final version of your article.

Right-click on the file name next to "Author's original submission", or "Author's revised submission" if you previously made changes, and save it on your computer.

Open this file and remove your reply or any response to reviewers that might show at the beginning of your article.

Re-insert any author details, such as name, email addresses, institution and biographical statements in the first page of your file.

Save your changes and rename the file "authorFinalVersion.doc" or "authorFinalVersion.docx".

No other files types are accepted.

(if this is a LaTeX file, please upload a pdf version as a supplementary file).

Now return to our submissions system, and use the "Browse" or "Choose file" button to insert this file.

5. Check that you have done all 4 steps as indicated above and then click the "Upload" button to submit the final version of your article and accompanying documents.

Thank you! Your continuing cooperation is most appreciated.
